

IN BOOT CAMP Marine Private Harold Milven Morse, grandson of Mrs. George Henry, 721 Pacific Lane, is now undergoing training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot in San Diego. During his nine-week "boot camp" training, Pvt. Morse will be instructed in such basic military subjects as precision drill, first aid, Marine Corps history and mission, and field tactics.

Revival Series To Open Today

A series of meetings under the direction of Dr. Harry Vom Bruch will begin today at the First Baptist Church and continue through March 22. Rev. C. M. Northrup, pastor of the church, reminded residents of the area yesterday. The meetings will be called "Good News Meetings," Rev. Northrup said. He indicated that Dr. Vom Bruch will bring a straightforward message and a challenge to those who hear him. The services will begin at 7:30 each evening and beginning Tuesday the evangelist will show pictures of special interest at 7 p.m. Rev. Everett Mills, known as the Children's Friend, will have charge of the song service each evening. He will also conduct a special session for youth at 3:30 on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday afternoon.

Alaskan Films To Be Shown

Films of the Home Mission Churches in Alaska will be shown by Jim Woods of Santa Ana in the Torrance Nazarene Church on Sunday evening, March 8 at 6:30. The Young People's Department, sponsors of the film showing, invite the public to see the picture. The church is located at 1501 W. Carson St.
